READING - Matthew 14:13-21

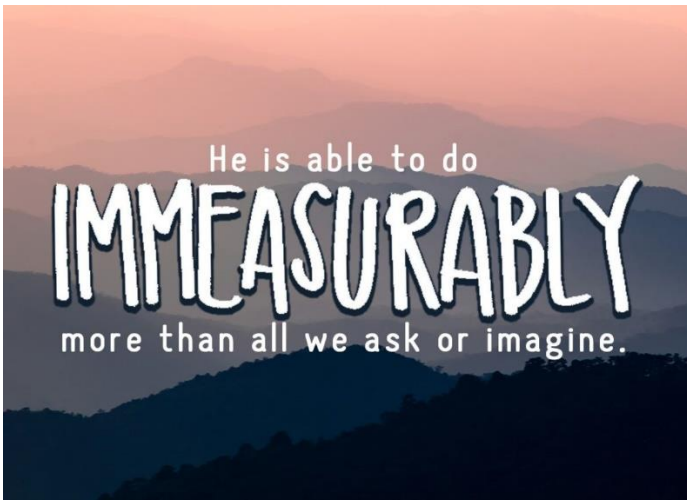

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

When Jesus heard what had happened, he withdrew by boat privately to a solitary place. Hearing of this, the crowds followed him on foot from the towns. When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them and healed their sick. As evening approached, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already getting late. Send the crowds away, so they can go to the villages and buy themselves some food."

Jesus replied, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."

"We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish," they answered.

"Bring them here to me," he said. And he directed the people to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks, and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people. They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. The number of those who ate was about five thousand men, besides women and children

PRAYER

Lord,
Reflecting on the feeding of the 5000
Open our eyes to the needs of those around us and grant us a heart of compassion.
We thank You for Your abundant provision and the grace that satisfies both our physical and spiritual hunger.
Amen

SONG

*God is good, He is good
In every way He's good
Oh, lift your eyes to heaven and remember He is good
He works all things together so much better than we could
Oh, lift your eyes to heaven and remember He is good,*

That's why we call Him Jehovah Jireh
He always provides
Why we call Him Jehovah Rapha
We're healed by His stripes

He will be faithful forever
His love never ends
Oh, and He never changes
It's just who He is

*God is good, He is good
In every way He's good
Oh, lift your eyes to heaven and remember He is good
He works all things together so much better than we could
Oh, lift your eyes, lift your eyes, lift your eyes*

That's why we call Him Jehovah Jireh
He always provides
Why we call Him Jehovah Rapha
We're healed by His stripes
He will be faithful forever
His love never ends
Oh, and He never changes
It's just who He is
