READING – Matthew 20:1-16

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

20 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. ² He agreed to pay them a denarius^[a] for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

³ “About nine in the morning he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. ⁴ He told them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ ⁵ So they went.

“He went out again about noon and about three in the afternoon and did the same thing. ⁶ About five in the afternoon he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?’

⁷ “‘Because no one has hired us,’ they answered.

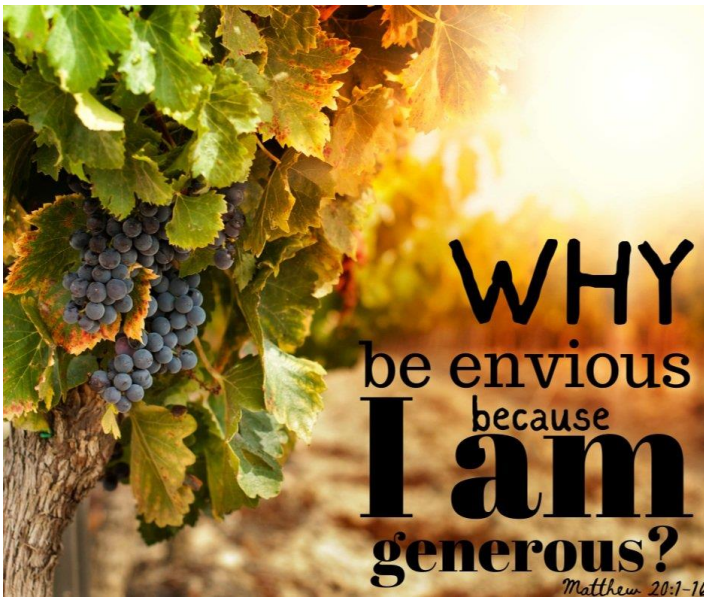

“He said to them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard.’

⁸ “When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.’

⁹ “The workers who were hired about five in the afternoon came and each received a denarius. ¹⁰ So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius. ¹¹ When they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner. ¹² ‘These who were hired last worked only one hour,’ they said, ‘and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.’

¹³ “But he answered one of them, ‘I am not being unfair to you, friend. Didn’t you agree to work for a denarius?’ ¹⁴ Take your pay and go. I want to give the one who was hired last the same as I gave you. ¹⁵ Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?’

¹⁶ “So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

PRAYER

Generous God, thank you for your extravagant grace.
Help us to drop our human scorecards,
stop comparing our rewards to others,
And rejoice in your boundless mercy
where the last are first and the first are last.
Amen.

Generous God
The Giver of Life
And every good and perfect gift
With arms open wide we come to receive from You
'Cause we know that You

*You'll do exceedingly
So much more than we
Could ask, believe or imagine
For You are generous
With Your lavish love
You pour it out on us
Unending*

With arms open wide we come to receive from You
'Cause we know that You

You'll do exceedingly

Pour it out on us (pour it out on us)
Pour it out on us (pour it out on us)
Pour it out (pour it out on us)
Pour it out on us (pour it out on us)
